

EARLY CHILDHOOD TRAININGS

All Classes held at: 444 Cherrycreek Rd., Lincoln, NE

All workshops are pre-approved for DHHS in-service hours by the Nebraska Department of Education

Supervision of Children

Tuesday, Dec. 13 – 6:30 - 8:30 pm

Cost: $10 – Register by Dec. 6

Supervision of children is a child care providers top priority. It doesn't matter what size the program is, or what level of quality they have reached, this information is good for all child care providers. In this workshop participants will define supervision of children, identify what inadequate, adequate and high quality supervision of children looks like, and create a list of action items for improvement of their program. This workshop has been created by the Early Childhood Training Center in collaboration with DHHS.

Documenting Children's Learning – Hybrid (4 CEU's)

Cost: $10 – Register by Oct. 11

On-line portion and homework available Oct. 12 via email

Two hour in-person class Tues. Nov. 22 – 6:30 - 8:30 pm

Documenting children's learning experiences in your program can be used in a multitude of ways; communicating with families, tracking children's progress, assessment, extending learning, showing accountability, and many more. However, this useful tool is very time consuming! During this hybrid training you will work at your own pace through an online course to learn the basics of documentation, then bring supplies with you to the in person session to work on creating class and individual portfolios.

CPR & First Aid - American Red Cross

Saturday, Oct. 22 or Dec. 10
